Subject: Taaleem Holdings PJSC confirms that the Group remains fully operational across its portfolio.

Taaleem Holdings PJSC (“Taaleem”) reaffirms its commitment to ensuring uninterrupted delivery of education across its portfolio in light of the current regional developments. The Group remains fully operational and, in line with its established academic continuity protocols, the Group has transitioned to online learning, with its teachers actively engaged with students and parents to maintain a seamless educational experience. The Group also remains fully prepared to welcome students back to on-campus learning as soon as guidance is provided by the relevant regulatory authorities.

This operational agility reflects the resilience built into the Group’s foundation. Taaleem’s strong financial performance in the last financial year, coupled with a continued positive trajectory in the second quarter, demonstrates the effectiveness of Taaleem’s long-term strategy and disciplined execution.

Taaleem continues to make tangible progress against its IPO strategy roadmap, successfully delivering key milestones such as the recent opening of DBS Mira. Taaleem’s focus remains on the future of education in the UAE, grounded in the sustained trust and confidence that parents and students place in the Group, as evidenced by strong historical enrolment trends.

Taaleem’s ability to adapt and execute in a dynamic environment remains central to its mission. The Group remains anchored in its commitment to continuity, operational excellence, and the delivery of exceptional education for all.

Mr. Khalid Al Tayer – Chairman of the Board of Directors, Taaleem

“Our first responsibility is, and always will be, the safety and wellbeing of our students, staff and wider school communities. Operating in full alignment with UAE authorities and regulators, we remain focused on ensuring continuity of education through structured, well-supported and high-quality learning environments.

We have full confidence in the leadership and stability of the UAE, and we are grateful for the clarity and guidance provided by national authorities. As a UAE-listed education group, we remain committed to acting responsibly, transparently and in the long-term interests of our students, families, colleagues and shareholders.

During this temporary period of understandable uncertainty, our role is to provide reassurance, stability and continuity, and we will continue to do so with discipline and care.”

Alan Williamson – Chief Executive Officer, Taaleem

“Taaleem’s established operating platform, diversified portfolio and experienced leadership teams position us to respond with agility, discipline and calm leadership in evolving circumstances. Education is a fundamentally resilient and essential service, and our schools are deeply embedded within strong, supportive communities across the UAE.

While we remain sensitive to the broader regional context, we are confident in the stability of the UAE environment and in the enduring strength of our long-term demand fundamentals. Our sector benefits from structural resilience, demographic growth and sustained parental commitment to high-quality education.

We continue to manage the business with prudent financial oversight, operational flexibility and a clear focus on continuity of excellence in teaching, learning and pastoral care. Our commitment is unwavering: to safeguard our communities, support our families and deliver sustained value to our stakeholders through disciplined execution and transparent communication.”

Kamil Najjar – Founder & CEO, Kids First Group, Taaleem

“For our youngest learners, emotional security, routine and joyful engagement are fundamental to healthy development. Early childhood education is built on care, connection and curiosity, and even during periods of wider uncertainty, our nurseries remain places of warmth, laughter and purposeful play.

Through age-appropriate guidance, calm communication and strong partnership with parents, our teams help children build resilience, trust and confidence in safe, nurturing environments. Whether learning is delivered in person or through alternative arrangements, safeguarding and wellbeing remain embedded in our daily practice.

We remain steadfast in creating joyful early learning experiences that foster belonging, stability and optimism for every child and family we serve.”

Best Regards,
